

Come explore the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's Sea Earth Atmosphere (NOAA SEA) educational resources for 3rd-5th grades.

What: Free NOAA SEA Education Workshop, PD credit available
(Please bring a laptop if you can)

Who: Targets 3rd-5th grade teachers
(all educators welcome)

Where: Saturday, June 1st, 2013, from 9:00am- 3:30 pm
Waikiki Aquarium, 2777 Kalakaua Ave Honolulu, HI 96815

Questions: Leon.Geschwind@noaa.gov / Shannan.Lewinski@noaa.gov

Register: <http://bit.ly/2013oahusignup>

Deadline: Friday May 24, 2013

Grade 3

- Shoreline Habitats
- Open Ocean Habitats
- Coral Reef Habitats
- Navigating the Water Cycle
- Humpback Whales 101
- Predicting and Tracking Hurricanes

Grade 4

- Island Formations
- Weather and Wave Patterns
- Aquatic Food Chains
- The Life and Times of the Humpback Whale
- Threatened and Endangered Species
- Beach Detectives
- Marine Protected Areas
- Ocean Geography and Geology

Grade 5

- The Wonderful World of Corals
- Life in a Wetland
- Climate Change
- Land Beneath the Sea
- Living Resources of the Ocean
- Life in the Open Ocean