

ALASKA RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

That's because the Digital Coast has a lot to offer Alaska.

2,554
Alaska visitors to the Digital Coast.
(1,243,781 nationwide)

DATA

11,922 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Alaska.

TOOLS

50+ decision-support tools applicable for Alaska challenges.

TRAINING

28 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

148 professionals used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Alaska.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $448,000 in private-sector geospatial services awarded for the West Coast region.

ALASKA STATS

110010001010100010100000111010
110010001010100010100000111101010101000101001011

- 83% of the population lives in coastal areas.
- $14.9 billion in annual wages from coastal employment.
- Three climate and weather disasters from 2010 to 2018.

110010001010100010100000111101010101000101001011010101010001010

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 GIS specialists.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast