

ALASKA RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

4,093

Alaska visitors to the Digital Coast. (1,316,535 nationwide)

That's because the Digital Coast has a lot to offer Alaska.

DATA

17,544 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Alaska.

TOOLS

50+ decision-support tools applicable for Alaska challenges.

TRAINING

29 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

12,515 times a professional used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Alaska.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $236,000 in private-sector geospatial services awarded for the West Coast region.

ALASKA STATS

110010001010100010100000111010
11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001011

- Over 600,000 residents live in coastal areas.
- $2.5 billion in annual wages from marine-dependent employment.
- Two billion-dollar climate and weather disasters since 2018.

11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001011010101010001010

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 floodplain managers and experts.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories.

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast