

INDIANA RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

15,627

Indiana visitors to the Digital Coast.
(1,316,535 nationwide)

That's because the Digital Coast has a lot to offer Indiana.

DATA

26,935 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Indiana.

TOOLS

50+ decision-support tools applicable for Indiana challenges.

TRAINING

8 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

26,460 times a professional used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Indiana.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $4.7 million in private-sector geospatial services awarded for the Great Lakes region.

INDIANA STATS

- 783,200 people live in coastal areas.
- $589.9 million in annual wages from marine-dependent employment.
- Thirty billion-dollar climate and weather disasters since 2018.

SAVING TIME AND MONEY
411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 floodplain managers and experts.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories.

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast