

MARYLAND RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

38,630

Maryland visitors to the Digital Coast.
(1,316,535 nationwide)

That's because the Digital Coast has a lot to offer Maryland.

DATA

11,330 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Maryland.

TOOLS

50+ decision-support tools applicable for Maryland challenges.

TRAINING

132 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

720,024 times a professional used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Maryland.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $822,000 in private-sector geospatial services awarded for the Mid-Atlantic region.

MARYLAND STATS

- Over 4.3 million residents live in coastal areas.
- $4.6 billion in annual wages from marine-dependent employment.
- Twenty-six billion-dollar climate and weather disasters since 2018.

110010001010100010100000111010
11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001

11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001011010101010001010

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 floodplain managers and experts.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories.

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast