

OHIO RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

15,657

Ohio visitors to the Digital Coast.
(1,243,781 nationwide)

That's because the Digital Coast
has a lot to offer Ohio.

DATA

1,265 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Ohio.

TOOLS

50+
decision-support tools applicable for Ohio challenges.

TRAINING

85 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

354 professionals
used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Ohio.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $622,000
in private-sector
geospatial services
awarded for the Great Lakes region.

OHIO STATS

- 21.6% of the state's population lives in coastal areas.
- $62 billion in annual wages from coastal employment.
- Twenty-one climate and weather disasters from 2010 to 2018.

110010001010100010100000111010
110010001010100010100000111101010101000101001011

1100100010101000101000001111010101010001010010111010101010001010

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 GIS specialists.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast