

PENNSYLVANIA RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

39,534

Pennsylvania visitors to the Digital Coast.
(1,316,535 nationwide)

*That's because the Digital Coast has a lot to offer Pennsylvania.

DATA

12,934 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Pennsylvania.

TOOLS

50+ decision-support tools applicable for Pennsylvania challenges.

TRAINING

Over 2,500 professionals attended Digital Coast trainings in-person or virtually.

76,747 professionals used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Pennsylvania.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $4.7 million in private-sector geospatial services awarded for the Great Lakes region.

PENNSYLVANIA STATS

- Over 2.4 million live in coastal areas.
- $1.4 billion in annual wages from marine-dependent employment.
- Thirty billion-dollar climate and weather disasters since 2018.

110010001010100010100000111101010101000101001011010101010001010

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 floodplain managers and experts.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories.

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast