

WASHINGTON RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

52,256

Washington visitors
the Digital Coast.
(1,316,535 nationwide)

That's because the Digital Coast
has a lot to offer Washington.

DATA

89,297 gigabytes of
high-resolution elevation
data available for Washington.

TOOLS

50+
decision-support
tools applicable
for Washington challenges.

TRAINING

153 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

123,819 times a professional used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Washington.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $236,000
in private-sector
geospatial services
awarded for the West Coast region.

WASHINGTON STATS

- Over 5.2 million residents live in coastal areas.
- $6.2 billion in annual wages from marine-dependent employment.
- Ten billion-dollar climate and weather disasters since 2018.

110010001010100010100000111010
11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001

11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001011010101010001010

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 floodplain managers and experts.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories.

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast