

WISCONSIN RELIES ON THE DIGITAL COAST

13,934

Wisconsin visitors to the Digital Coast.
(1,316,535 nationwide)

That's because the Digital Coast has a lot to offer Wisconsin.

DATA

49,498 gigabytes of high-resolution elevation data available for Wisconsin.

TOOLS

50+ decision-support tools applicable for Wisconsin challenges.

TRAINING

71 professionals attended a Digital Coast training in-person or virtually.

31,758 times a professional used an online Digital Coast Academy resource in Wisconsin.

GEOSPATIAL SERVICES

Over $4.7 million in private-sector geospatial services awarded for the Great Lakes region.

WISCONSIN STATS

- Over 2 million residents live in coastal areas.
- $1.2 billion in annual wages from marine-dependent employment.
- Twenty-one billion-dollar climate and weather disasters since 2018.

110010001010100010100000111010
11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001

11001000101010001010000011101010101000101001011010101010001010

411% was the return on investment calculated for the Digital Coast.

SAVING TIME AND MONEY

PARTNERSHIP REACH: 100,000+

The Digital Coast Partnership is one way this initiative stays close to user needs and expands the reach of Digital Coast contributors. Partnership constituencies include

- American Planning Association has 45,000 members including planners, students, and commissioners.
- Urban Land Institute has 42,000 real estate and land use experts.
- Association of State Floodplain Managers has 18,000 floodplain managers and experts.

To see how these resources are being used in your region, visit coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast/stories.

Digital Coast

coast.noaa.gov/digitalcoast