

This is a list of authorized users eligible to receive Quickbird data. A license agreement may need to be signed prior to data distribution. If you would like to receive the licensed data, please contact us at coastal.info@noaa.gov and include Licensed Data Request in the subject line.

DigitalGlobe/Quickbird Authorized Users by dataset

2003 Hawaii/Waianae

- National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
- U.S. Geological Survey
- The Trust for Public Lands
- University of Hawaii
- State of Hawaii (Office of Planning, Office of Environmental Affairs, Department of Health, Department of Agriculture Pesticides Branch, Department of Land and Natural Resources)
- City and County of Honolulu (Department of Planning and Permitting)

2004 Coastal Louisiana and Mississippi

- U.S. Government
- Can also be shared with the following organizations when on a joint project with the US Government: State Governments, Local Governments, Foreign Governments, inter-governmental organizations, NGO's and NPO's.

2004 Hawaii

- U.S. Government
- Can also be shared with the following organizations when on a joint project with the US Government: State Governments, Local Governments, Foreign Governments, inter-governmental organizations, NGO's and NPO's.

2005, 2006, and 2008 Coastal Louisiana and Mississippi

- Multiple users (up to 25) within multiple civil government entities at multiple locations located within the United States. This includes users engaged in joint projects with the civil government

2004-2009 Pacific Islands

- U.S. Government
- Can also be shared with the following organizations when on a joint project with the US Government: State Governments, Local Governments, Foreign Governments, inter-governmental organizations, NGO's and NPO's.